

Flower Love

Chapter Four

Flowers I Love:

Wedding Bouquets:

A Glossary of Shapes

• Round •
The more buttoned-up version of the hand-tied bouquet, tied with ribbon.

• Pageant •
Long stem flowers and foliage that the bride cradles in her arm.

• Cascade •
A waterfall-like "spill" of blooms either anchored in a holder or hand-tied.

Our Wedding Colors:

• Nosegay •
A compact, cluster of flowers, wrapped tight and cut to one uniform length.

• Pomander •
A flower covered ball shaped tied with a ribbon. (Great for flower girls)

• Posy •
One of the more popular options, it's a small, round bouquet tied with ribbon.
